

Harvard Unitarian Universalist Church

Chancel Decorations 2007-2008

Thank you for volunteering for Chancel Decorations on (DATE).

Things to consider:

Typically, the chancel decoration is a floral arrangement. Many donors are expanding on this concept by artfully arranging other objects on the chancel table. This may be an art piece such as a painting or sculpture. An arrangement of non-floral, natural items such as shells, stones, pinecones, or branches is another option.

If you are purchasing flowers from a florist:

Average costs of a purchased flower arrangement are $35 to $50.

Average costs of purchased and delivered flowers are $45 - $60.

Delivery options:

Florist delivery is usually on Saturday but arrangements must be made with Elinor Stapleton at 978-456-8752 to make sure the church is open.

You may bring them in yourself on Sunday morning at least 20 minutes before Service.

Options for Containers:

Bring your own

Use a church vase located in the room to the right of sanctuary. These containers may not leave the church.

Dedications:

If you want a written dedication for your decorations please send a sentence to Elinor Stapleton at adminuuharvard@verizon.net by Friday morning 9:00 am in order for it to be printed in the OOS or Chalice Chat.

After church options:

Take the flowers with you

Donate them to the Caring Committee to bring to a church member in need (please pre-arrange with the Caring Committee - Darrell Wickman 978-456-8081)

By volunteering for chancel decoration, you are honoring our church covenant to "celebrate together our traditions and our lives, with all their sorrows and joys".

Thank you.
